ALLEGED ASSAILANT OF WOMEN IS CAUGHT

Brutal Attack Leads to Arrest of Oakland Man of Mystery.

GIVES NAME OF HOLSTROM.

Claims to Own a Rowboat and It Is Believed That He Evaded the Police in the Craft.

San Francisco, Feb. 1.—Oakland's man of mystery has finally been lodged behind the bars of the City Prison. Through a clever capture effected single-handed by Policeman Patrick McKeegan, the authorities believe they now have the man who has been responsible for the numerous recent assaults upon women and girls.

MISS KATE McDONOUGH, Who was attacked by the Man of Mystery. ough, the young daughter of Martin Mc-Donough, and Mrs. B. Brown were bru-

Harrison streets. He threw both women to the ground, but they fought like tigresses and one of them, regaining her feet, struck blow after blow upon the assallant's head. Both women screamed at the top of their voices, attracting Policeman Patrick Mc-Keegan to the scene. He Fled From Officer.

At the sound of the approaching patrol-man's footsteps the man quickly picked up a bundle of laundered linen he had dropped, and ran down Harrison street to Seventh, where he turned westerly. He was seen to enter a ledging-house at No. 317 Seventh street, where he was arrested prisoner gives. He is about 45 years old. He says he is a carpenter by occupation, and the chain of evidence is strong that fastens him with the commission of the brutal attack upon the two women.

According to Mrs. A. Ferrell, who conducts a lodging-house at No. 317 Seventh street. Hoistrom, who has always been regarded as an exceptionally quiet lodger in the past, came rushing into the house shortly after the time of the assault, "all out of breath," as she puts it. Talked About Cold Weather.

Talked About Cold Weather.

He quickly stepped into his room, a front parlor on the first floor, left his washing and hurried into the kitchen and began talking to the landlady about the frigid atmosphere. Several times he drank water and he was in a state of nervougness that caused him to pace the floor almost continually. When the officer arrived and was searching the house, assisted by several lodgers, Holstrom remained in the kitchen, where McKeegan finally located him and placed him under arrest.

Holstrom vigolously objected to the placing of handcuffs upon his wrists. He made no protestation of innoceace, but professed ignorance of the charge, though later at the prison he entered a denial.

When searched a pair of oarlocks were found in his coat pocket, and he claims to own a boat in the estuary, a fact which leads to the belief that Holstrom has made frequent use of the craft in evading the police.

His Other Hotel.

It is learned, also, that Holstrom had a room regularly engaged at the Colonial House, where a bicycle belonging to him was found. Frequently, Mrs. Farrell says, he has remained away a week at a time, and it is supposed that he also rooms across the har. and it is supposed that he also rooms across the bar.

Holstrom is a tall, powerful man, weigh-ing over 200 pounds, and his landlady, as well as offier of her lodgers who have known him for several years, express the belief that he is not sound mentally.

belief that he is not sound mentally.

Arrested in 1896.

He is not unknown to the police here, for in 1896 he was arrested on a misdemeanor charge preferred by Mrs. Lydia Prescott, who sileged that he mistreated his son. He was also once arrested at Denver, Colo., for running away with another man's wife. His cwn wife has been dead some years, and he is said to have three children living.

Miss Kate McDonough, one of the young women attacked, is well known for her bravery and courage. While very much excited over the affairs, she spoke quite calmily in relating the details to the police.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Boston, Mass., Feb. 1.-The girls of Radcliffe College are raising $100 by subscription to buy a valuable dog for Helen Kellar, the deaf, dumb and blind student, the movement being started under remarkable circumstances.

Miss Kellar, who is very fond of dogs, went, in company with her teacher, Miss Sullivan, and several Radeliffe girls, to visit kennels at Newton. They were shown a number of dogs, all of which ran up to them to be talked to and petted. Finally the owner of the kennels said:

"Sir Thomas!" repeated his master, and he whistled, but with the same result.

The Radcliffe girls, who had seen the episode at the kennels, determined to get up a subscription and buy Sir Thomas for her.

Late Superintendent Confederate Home of Mistouri.

Missouri Valley, Ia., Jan. 18, 1902.

Three weeks ago the directory of the Silver Dime Gil Company, realizing its duty to its stockholders, as well as those who were to huv stock in the company, concluded to store one million barrels of oil in tanks above the top of the ground, and thereby create an existing, taugible asset for its stockholders worth more than the Entire Capital Stock of the Company; thereby put thing the company beyond any contingency that might arise; and for this purpose continued to sell stock at 10c a share, receipts of which have been placed in a tank fund.

The receipts from the sale of stock for the tank fund have been large enough to enable the company's going ahead and contracting for the erection of tanks. For a short time we will continue to sell stock

AT 100 PER SHARE,

Receipts of which will be placed in the tank fund for completion with connections from wells, loading rack, etc. There are a large number of teams at work and the tanks will be finished as rapidly as possible. Remember, when we have sold enough stock for our tank fund, stock will be advanced and no more sold at the present price.

We Prove What We Say at Our Own Expense. COME AS OUR GUEST TO THE BEAUMONT OIL FIELDS

On our Red Letter Offer, which is as follows: Any person or community wishing to purchase $50 worth of the stock, or more, may deposit the amount with their local bank, to be held by said bank until one of their number shall visit Beaumont and Galveston and personally investigate the company's holdings and its officers. Upon being notified of such deposit by the bank, we will forward free transportation to Galveston, Beaumont and return. If our representations are found to be correct the investment is to be made; if rot, the bank is to return the money paid to depositors. We court investigation, because we are sound and reliable.

WE ARE PRODUCERS. On December 17th, 1991, Gusher No. 1. flowing a 6-inch stream of oil, came in on block No. 38, of Spindle Top. Our Second well of the same size, being located in block No. 31. Spindle Top, is now going through the Can Rock and will be in within the next few days; thus giving this company two of the very best wells on Spindle Top, and equipping it for sale of oil second to none in the field.

On the first day of February, 1992, our first monthly dividends of 2 per cent will be paid out of actual sales of oil, having contracted for the delivery of 1,000,000 barrels, upon which an advance payment has been made, and from which these dividends are to be paid.

RESOUROES.

Remember that this company owns twice as much land on Spindle Top as any other ten-cent company ever organized, and that it has room for twenty gushers in the proven field. That they have acquired lands for tankage, have let a contract for a pipe line to their tankage grounds and the railroads: are joining with others in a pipe line to Port Arthur and Sabine Pass and to-day present the greatest inducement for profitable investment ever offered to parties buying stock.

SILVER DIME OIL CO., Galveston, Tex.
Gentlemen-I was selected by a party of prospective stockhedders in the Silver Dune to make the trip to the oil region; to look into your affairs, both in the office and where the work of drilling is going on; and I now desire to say that I have looked into all the details and am fully and thereingbly satisfied with everything connected with the company. It was a surprise to me to find things much better than represented by you. I wish you the success you proposition deserves. Very truly yours. (Signed)
